HENRICH CONRIED DEAD

Word of the death of Heinrich Conried, the Impressario, comes from the Tyrol. Conried has been unconscious since Friday, when he was taken with an attack of apoplexy.

Conried was born in Silesia in 1855. His father was a weaver named Cohn, and as a boy Heinrich was a baker's helper. In the '70's he was an actor in the Burg Theater, this city, and in 1878 he left for New York to accept the management of the German Theater.

He also managed performances on the English stage and later became the manager of the Irving Place Theater. In 1903 he became the director of the Metropolitan Opera House, New York. He resigned last year.
